Returns and Refunds Policy

Crafty Keepsakes

Last updated: 10th November 2026

At Crafty Keepsakes, we understand how important your wedding stationery is to your special day. Every order is handled with care and attention to detail to ensure your stationery meets the agreed design and quality standards.

1. Bespoke and Personalised Stationery

As many of our products are made to order and personalised specifically for each customer, certain items may not be eligible for return simply because you have changed your mind.

This includes, but is not limited to:

- Personalised wedding invitations and save the dates
- Custom designed menus, place cards and table numbers
- Seating plans and Table plans
- Order of Service booklets and wedding programmes
- Bespoke signage, welcome signs and other on the day stationery.
- Any stationery printed with customer specific names, dates, wording or other personal details.
- Where the law provides an exception to the usual cancellation rights for personalised goods, we may rely on the exception. We will explain any applicable restrictions before your order is placed.

Please note: Personalised items are still covered by your statutory rights if they are faulty, damaged, misdescribed or do not conform to the agreed order.

2. Proof Approval and Printing Errors

Before printing begins, customers will normally receive a digital proof for approval, where applicable.

It is the customer's responsibility to check the proof carefully, including:

- Names and Spellings
- Wedding dates, times and venue details
- Addresses and contact information.
- Guest names, table assignments and quantities.
- Wording, Punctuation and Layout.

Once the final proof has been approved, the order will proceed to production.

If an error was included in the approved proof and the finished stationery matches that proof, we may not be able to offer a free reprint or refund solely because the error was overlooked during approval.

However, if we introduce an error during production, or the finished items do not match the approved proof or agreed specification, please contact us so that we can investigate and arrange an appropriate remedy.

Nothing in this section limits your statutory rights.

3. Damaged, Faulty or Incorrect Orders

We take great care when preparing and packaging your stationery. If your order arrives damaged, contains a production fault or differs from what you ordered, please contact us as soon as reasonably possible. To help us resolve the issue quickly please provide:

- Your order number
- A description of the issue.
- Clear photographs of the affected items and packaging, where applicable.

We will assess the issue and discuss an appropriate resolution. Depending on the circumstances and your legal rights, this may include a replacement, reprint, price reduction and refund.

Where an item is faulty, damaged or does not conform to the contract, you will not be required to pay for a remedy that must legally be provided at our expense.

Please contact us at craftykeepsakesprints@gmail.com

4. Change of Mind and Returns

For standard non-personalised products purchased online, customers may have a statutory right to cancel their order within 14 days of receiving goods, subject to applicable exceptions and legal requirements.

For eligible cancellations, customers will generally have a further 14 days after notifying us to return the goods.

To exercise a cancellation right, please notify us in writing at craftykeepsakesprints@gmail.com, providing your name, order number and a clear statement that you wish to cancel.

Where a return is permitted because of a change of mind:

- Items must be returned in accordance with the applicable cancellation requirements.
- Customers may be responsible for the direct cost of returning goods where legally permitted and properly notified in advance.
- Refunds will be processed in accordance with applicable law.
- Any permitted deduction for handling beyond what is necessary to inspect the goods will be assessed in accordance with the law.
- The statutory cancellation right generally does not apply the goods made to the customer's specifications or clearly personalised. Some other exceptions may also apply.

Nothing in this policy removes any cancellation rights you may have under consumer law.

5. Cancellations before Production.

If you wish to cancel an order before printing or production has begun, please contact us as soon as possible.

Where cancellation is agreed, any refund will take account of the stage of the order, work already completed, materials purchased or committed, and any applicable statutory rights.

Any charges for design work or other services already provided will be assessed fairly and in accordance with the agreed contract and applicable law.

We will explain any applicable cancellation charges and provide a breakdown where appropriate.

6. Orders already in production or completed

Once an order has entered printing, production or personalisation, it may not be possible to stop or amend it.

If you request cancellation at this stage, we will consider what work has been completed, which costs have been incurred and what remedies are available under the contract and applicable law.

We cannot guarantee a refund for completed personalised stationery where change of mind cancellation right does not apply. However, this does not affect your rights if the goods are faulty, misdescribed or otherwise fail to comply with the contract.

7. Wedding Date Changes or Postponements

We understand that wedding plans can change unexpectedly.

If your wedding date, venue or other details change after an order has been placed, please contact us as soon as possible.

Where production has not begun, we will do our best to accommodate reasonable changes, subject to availability and any additional design or administration costs agreed with you.

If your stationery has already been printed or personalised, replacement items may require a new order and additional payment.

Any request to postpone or cancel an order will be considered on a case by case basis, taking into account the work completed, costs incurred and your statutory rights.

8. Refund Processing

Where a refund is agreed or legally required, it will normally be made using original payment method unless another arrangement is agreed and required by law.

We will process refunds within the applicable statutory timeframe. Where no statutory timeframe applies, we aim to process agreed refunds within 14 days.

Your bank or payment provider may take additional time to make the funds available.

Where a return is required, we will explain the applicable return arrangements and any costs that may lawfully be charged.

9. Delivery Issues

If your order has not arrived within the expected timeframe, please contact us so that we can investigate with the delivery provider.

If your order arrives damaged or incomplete, please notify us as soon as reasonably possible and provide supporting photographs where appropriate.

We will work with you to resolve delivery issues and meet our legal obligations. Nothing in this policy excludes your rights relating to late delivery, non-delivery, loss or damage.

10. Items we cannot Accept for Return

Subject to your statutory rights, we may be unable to accept returns solely because of a change of mind for:

- Bespoke or Personalised Stationery
- Items printed with customer approved wording or designs
- Custom made signage and on the day stationery.
- Products made specifically to the customer's measurements, specification or requirements.

This does not exclude returns, replacements or refunds where required by law, including where goods are faulty, damaged or misdescribed.
